The wh bk Louise which arrived yesterday has 75 bbls of oil on board. She will land it to-day, and proceed on her voyage to the Arctic.

The bark Lady Lampson sailed for San Francisco yesterday. She took away 10342 pkgs of sugar, and 256 pkgs of rice. Domestic value, $82,326.56.

The bktn Amelia arrived yesterday from Port Townsend. She brought 442,275 feet rough and 38,712 feet surface lumber, and 200,000 shingles to Messrs Allen & Robinson.

The "Honolulu Amateur Minstrel Club" give a performance to-night at the New Music Hall. The bill presented is an attractive one, and the Club has a good array of talent.

A big native luau, or feast, takes place to-day at Kahakaulana, on the reef makai of the city, being the late Small-pox Hospital. The feast is gotten up by those who were confined there during the epidemic of last year, either as patients or attendants. Mr. Dayton, the Deputy Marshall, is appointed by the natives as major domo for the occasion, and a large company has been invited.

There came near being a very serious fire last evening, on board the brig Consuelo, lying at the foot of Fort street. As it is, the house on deck containing the sailors' quarters and the galley, is thoroughly gutted. The alarm was given at about 9 o'clock, and the Fire Department was promptly out, but by the time the wharf was reached the fire had been extinguished by the police and others. There will doubtless be an investigation into the affair to-day. The Consuelo is nearly loaded with sugar, and would have been ready for sea early next week.

The new Chinese interpreter, Mr. Li Acheung, has been in the performance of his duties in attendance upon the Supreme Court during the past week. He is said by his countrymen to be a good interpreter, though of course we must take their word for it. His English pronunciation is distinct, with a decided British colonial twang, which is natural enough—he at first addressed the presiding judge as "Your Lordship." He was dressed in European style on arrival, but appears in Court in full Chinese costume, including a queue, which is considered etiquette.
